St. James's, November 17.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Right Honorable the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh.

SIRE,

STRUCK with Aſtoniſhment, as we are, at the late audacious Inſult committed on your Majeſty's Perſon, which is, by our excellent Conſtitution, juſtly deemed ſacred and inviolable, we now approach your Throne, eager to teſtify at once our Reſpect, our Eſteem and Veneration for our beloved Sovereign, and the Deteſtation we feel of that ſacrilegious Attempt which has been made on your Perſon and Authority.

Abhorrent, as we are, of the wicked but contemptible Hands who were the Inſtruments of that Inſult, this Sentiment in our Breaſts is feeble, when compared with the rooted Deteſtation we feel of thoſe Men, unworthy of the Name of Britons, whoſe Principles and Doctrines, hoſtile to all good Government and civil Subordination, have a direct Tendency to inflame the Minds and poiſon the Felicity of a loyal, a well-affected, a free, and a moſt happy People. Of ſuch it is our fervent Prayer that the malevolent Deſigns may ever be fruſtrated by the Wiſdom of a good Providence and our own loyal and ſpirited Exertions.

Conſidering this nefarious Outrage as a Signal for all good Men to rally round that Conſtitution, thus attempted to be violated in the Perſon of it's Firſt Magiſtrate, we devote, with true Patriotiſm, our Hearts, our Hands, our Property, and all we hold valuable as Members of Society, to the Preſervation of that glorious Fabric, and, what we deem it's beſt Security, the Safety of your Majeſty's Life and the Maintenance of that Dignity and Reſpect juſtly annexed to your great Office.

And in this noble Purpoſe, Sire, it is our Pride and our Comfort to think that we ſpeak not as Individuals, but utter the unanimous Senſe of that large and reſpectable Community, the Metropolis of this Part of the united Kingdoms, whom we have the Honor to repreſent.

Signed and ſealed by our Appointment, and in our Preſence, this 6th Day of November, in the Year 1795.

James Stirling, Provoſt.

To the KING.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the whole Gentlemen of the County and Town of Nairn, your Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, met this Day in Common Hall, finding it impoſſible to expreſs in Words the Abhorrence and Indignation of our Feelings for the late Attack and Inſult offered to your Royal Perſon, beg Leave thus to approach your Throne, and in the full Sincerity of Truth to aſſure your Majeſty we are ready on all Occaſions to ſupport our glorious Conſtitution, and defend (in your ſacred Perſon) our Father and King with our Lives and Property. We moſt fervently pray to Almighty God long to ſpare you to your People, in full Enjoyment of Health Happineſs.

Signed, in the Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, this 10th of November, 1795,

James Brodie, Preſes.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Miniſters and Incorporated Societies of the Town of Leith, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the moſt ſincere Attachment.

We congratulate your Majeſty on the providential Eſcape which your Majeſty lately made from an audacious Attack on your Royal Perſon.

Entertaining a juſt Senſe of the Reſpect due to the Office and to the Perſon of our moſt gracious Sovereign, and anxious for the Peace and Proſperity of the Nation, we deeply lament that there are Men, who, regardleſs of both, have wickedly dared to offer Violence to the beſt of Kings, who, during the Whole of his Reign, has ſhewed that the Welfare of his People is the Object neareſt to his Heart.

Under theſe Impreſſions we truſt that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to employ the moſt effectual effectual Means for bringing the Perpetrators of this atrocious Crime to an immediate and exemplary Puniſhment.

In ſupporting your Majeſty in this and every Meaſure tending to maintain the Honour and advance the Happineſs of the Britiſh Empire, your Majeſty may rely on the Fidelity and Zeal of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed by the Magiſtrates, in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, the Seal of the Town being annexed, at Leith, the 7th of November, 1795.

Rob. Strong, ſen.
Alex. Shirriff.

St. James's, November 17.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

At a Meeting of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, held upon the 12th of November, 1795, the Meeting unanimouſly voted the following Addreſs to His Majeſty, and authoriſed Charles Hay, Eſq; Provoſt, to ſign the ſame in his and in their Name, and thereafter tranſmit it to His Majeſty's Secretary of State.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, entertaining the higheſt Veneration for the Virtues which diſtinguiſh your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and ſenſible of the Bleſſings which we enjoy under our preſent happy Conſtitution, felt the utmoſt Indignation from the diſorderly and licentious Conduct of thoſe who lately dared to offer ſuch groſs Inſult and Violence towards your Majeſty.

We beg Leave ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty, that thoſe Men, who have hitherto manifeſted themſelves to be inimical to the Intereſts of our Country have been ſo ſtrictly watched that all their wicked Attempts have been happily fruſtrated; and we hope that, inſtead of producing the miſchievous Effects intended, ſuch Attempts will only tend to unite the more firmly the Hearts of all good Men in repelling both foreign and domeſtic Enemies. As Britons, we deem it our Duty to come forward on this Occaſion, and again publicly to declare our firm and unſhaken Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and our happy Conſtitution.

That your Majeſty may long live happy, the Guardian of our Laws and the Father of your People, is the ardent Wiſh and Prayer of your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar.

Cha. Hay, Provoſt.

[Tranſmitted by the Provoſt.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the ancient City of St. Andrew's, beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Congratulations upon your Majeſty's Eſcape from the Violence lately offered to your Royal Perſon. We heard of the wicked Attempt with the Indignation it deſerves, and conſider thoſe concerned in it as unworthy of the Protection of that mild Government to which your Majeſty has at all Times given ſuch diſtinguiſhed Support. By this unexampled Outrage the Enemies of our happy Conſtitution have given a freſh Proof of their being the Enemies of every Thing that is good, and add, if poſſible, to our Conviction, that the Continuance of your Majeſty's invaluable Life forms the beſt Security for the Proſperity of the Britiſh Empire, and for the Happineſs of all it's Subjects.

Signed, in the Abſence of the Earl of Breadalbane, our Lord Provoſt, by the Order and in the Preſence of the Town Council.

Rob. Key, Dean of Guild of St. Andrew's.

St. Andrew's, November 12, 1795.

[Tranſmitted by the Dean of Guild of St. Andrew's.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweedale, take the Opportunity of our meeting at this Time to addreſs your Majeſty, with all the Emotions of Loyalty and and affection which the moſt dutiful Subjects owe to their beloved Sovereign.

We feel thoſe Sentiments excited to an uncommon Degree, by the recent moſt audacious Attack on your Majeſty's Perſon and Dignity, when proceeding to exerciſe one of the Prerogatives of the Crown, by opening a new Seſſion of Parliament, the Frequency of whoſe Meetings is one of the greateſt Privileges of the People, and one of the firmeſt Securities of their Liberties.

While, with heartfelt Gratitude to Almighty God, for his providential Care of your Majeſty's precious Life, we render unto him our fervent Thanks, and, with the moſt unfeigned Joy, congratulate your Majeſty on your Eſcape from ſuch imminent Danger, we feel a juſt Abhorrence of that Spirit of Diſloyalty and Sedition which leads Men to ſuch atrocious Deeds.

We truſt under God to that univerſal Love which your Majeſty ſo deſervedly poſſeſſes, and which muſt be raiſed, on this Occaſion, to the higheſt Pitch in the Breaſts of all your loyal Subjects, for the future Security of your Majeſty's moſt precious Life: And we do aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall continue unremitting in our Labours, among the People committed to our Care, to inculcate upon them ſuch Principles of Religion and Loyalty, of Love to your ſacred Perſon, and Attachment to the Conſtitution in Church and State, as may effectually guard them againſt all the Artifices of the Diſloyal and Seditious.

That your Majeſty may ever be under the peculiar Care of Almighty God; that He may ever guard your ſacred Perſon from ſecret Machinations and open Violence; that He may be pleaſed to bleſs the Queen, their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales; and that a Race of Kings deſcended from your Majeſty may ſway the Sceptre of theſe Lands to the lateſt Poſterity, is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment,

James Dick, Moderator.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Cheſterfield in the County of Derby, with true Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and grateful Senſe of the numerous Bleſſings we have uniformly enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and benevolent Government, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty on this ſpecial Occaſion, to expreſs our Deteſtation and Reſentment of the Inſult and Outrage recently offered to your Majeſty on your Paſſage to and from your Parliament, when in the actual Exercise of your Majeſty's Conſtitutional Powers, with the benevolent Intentions of effecting the Welfare and Proſperity of your People, as is evidently expreſſed in your Majeſty's moſt gracious Speech on that Day delivered to both your Houſes of Parliament.

We very feelingly lament that there exiſt Individuals amongſt your Majeſty's Subjects ſo abandoned as to caſt off all Reverence and Reſpect for Human and Divine Laws, and Moral Duties: That there can be any Denomination of Subjects ſo inſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings they daily experience from your Majeſty's kind Protection and impartial Adminiſtration of the Laws of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, ſo blind to your Virtues and the Amiableneſs of your Majeſty's public and private Character, exhibits to us and to your good Subjects in general, the ſtrongeſt Inſtance of their Ingratitude and Depravity.

At the ſame Time we humbly beg Leave to expreſs our hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the Injuries offered to your ſacred Perſon, and hope that your Majeſty will bring to condign Puniſhment the Perpetrators and Abettors of Crimes ſo malignant and atrocious.

Signed by the Mayor, and given under the Common Seal of the Borough aforeſaid, at the Council-Houſe within the ſaid Borough, the 11th Day of November, 1795.

John Elam, Mayor.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the States of the Iſland of Alderney, aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the States of your Majeſty's Iſland of Alderney, aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of the higheſt Reſpect moſt humbly to expreſs our Abhorrence and Indignation at the daring Outrages lately offered to your ſacred Perſon in your Majeſty's Paſſage to and from your Parliament.

Enjoying, as we do, every Benefit under the mild and benignant Auſpices of the Britiſh Conſtitution, we lament that a wicked and lawleſs Mob ſhould have dared to commit ſo heinous an Infringement thereof; and we truſt that the Authors and Abettors of theſe atrocious Crimes will be brought to condign and exemplary Puniſhments. At the ſame Time we offer to Almighty God our moſt ſincere and fervent Thanks for his gracious Goodneſs in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Perſon.

Forming a Part of your Majeſty's hereditary Dominions, and by our Laws more immediately depending on your Royal Rule and Governance, we gratefully acknowledge, that, foſtered by that paternal Regard, that warm and active Solicitude, which your Majeſty ever bears to all your Subjects, this Iſland continues encreaſing in Wealth, Population and Happineſs; and in offering up our Prayers to the Supreme Diſpoſer of Events for the Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign, we devoutly add, that our ancient and unſhaken Loyalty may be fully inherited by our lateſt Poſterity.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, in Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty the Sentiments of Deteſtation and Abhorrence which the Accounts of the late daring Inſults offered to your Majeſty, when paſſing to and from Parliament, have excited in our Minds.

The well known Moderation and Equity of your Majeſty's Government; the perſonal Virtues which adorn your Character; the unſpeakable Advantages poſſeſſed by your Majeſty's Subjects; the Protection of equal Laws; the mild Adminiſtration of Juſtice, public and private, with an Impartiality, perhaps, unequalled in any other Country, and certainly exceeded in none; the Enjoyment of every rational Liberty, ſacred and civil, joined with Security in the Poſſeſſion of every Right to all, without Exception, who keep within the Fence of the Laws; theſe Bleſſings, ſo ſubſtantial and ſo important, by which, through the Goodneſs of Providence, this Nation has long been diſtinguiſhed, but never more eminently than during your Majeſty's Reign, might, we ſhould think, have enſured the preſent Generation from witneſſing ſuch an Outrage as reflects Diſhonor on the Age and Country, and calls loud for the Interpoſition of Law.

It is with inexpreſſible Concern we obſerve, that, through the Infatuation of the Times, the very beſt Names, as thoſe of Liberty and Virtue, are perverted into Charms for decoying the Ignorant, the Weak, and the Wicked, into Situations the Reverſe of thoſe which the Names were intended to expreſs. By the bewitching Term Liberty, Men are enſnared into the vileſt Deſpotiſm and Anarchy; and by the Word Virtue, as by a magical Spell, they are lured into Atheiſm and the utmoſt Atrocity of Guilt. Whilſt we highly condemn, we moſt ſincerely pity, the deluded Wretches themſelves. It might have been thought, that before now, Time itſelf, conſidering the Events it has produced, would have wrought a Cure. May God himſelf diſpel the ſtrong Illuſion; may He open the Eyes of the People, and reſtrain them from throwing away the Subſtance in Purſuit of the Shadow, and from being ſeduced by empty Names to overlook Things of the laſt Conſequence.

That God may bleſs your Majeſty with a long and proſperous Reign, than which nothing can conduce more to the Happineſs of your People, to whom you have always proved a Father, is our moſt ſincere and ardent Prayer.

Signed, in Name, in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and City Council of Aberdeen, in Council convened, and the common City Seal hereto affixed, at Aberdeen, the 9th Day of November, in the Year 1795, by George More, Provoſt.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Perth, in Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to expreſs the great Deteſtation and Horror we feel at the late daring Inſult offered to your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon. We congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Deliverance from the Attack of wicked and ſeditious Men, and embrace this Opportunity to declare our zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and our firm Reſolution to ſupport the mild and equitable Government and Conſtitution under which we live.

The Happineſs and Proſperity we have enjoyed ſince your Majeſty aſcended the Throne calls forth our warmeſt Gratitude, and excites us earneſtly to beſeech the Almighty to prolong your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life, and to grant that your Majeſty and your moſt illuſtrious Family may long enjoy his choiceſt Bleſſings.

Signed, in Preſence of the Council, at Perth, the 12th Day of November, 1795.

James Ramſay, Provoſt.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of Ayr.

Sire,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of your ancient and loyal Burgh of Ayr, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the moſt reſpectful and affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to offer our ſincere Congratulations on the late Eſcape, ſo fortunate for the Nation, that your Majeſty has experienced from the atrocious Attempts of a daring and profligate Band of Miſcreants, which, whether ſtimulated by the abandoned Depravity of their own Diſpoſitions, or ſet on by a wicked and diſappointed Faction, we equally reprobate and deplore; and unite in our fervent Prayers to the Almighty, that you may long be preſerved an ineſtimable Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms.

We farther beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that having the fulleſt Confidence in your paternal Affection for your People, we ſubmit with Chearfulneſs to the unavoidable Difficulties incurred by the Proſecution of the preſent juſt and neceſſary War, under the firmeſt Reliance that your Majeſty's Goodneſs will, at a proper Time, purſue ſuch Meaſures as may procure us the Bleſſings of a permanent and honourable Peace.

Signed in our Preſence, by Appointment,
Ayr, Nov. 7, 1795. Cha. Macey, Provoſt.

To the KING.

The humble Addreſs of the Univerſity of Glaſgow.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Vice-Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculties and Profeſſors of your Univerſity of Glaſgow, in Senate aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the providential Eſcape from the Danger to which your Royal Perſon was lately expoſed in your Majeſty's Paſſage to and from your Parliament, and to teſtify our Abhorrence of the traitorous Deſigns from which ſuch an atrocious Attempt muſt have proceeded.

Though deſperate and unprincipled Perſons, regardleſs of the Good of Mankind, and Enemies of all Order and Peace, ſometimes ariſe in every Country, yet we are convinced that your Majeſty reigns in the Heart of your Subjects, and that there are very few among them who do not ſincerely join with us in praying that your Majeſty may long ſway the Sceptre over a free and happy People.

It ſhall always be our earneſt Study to train up the Youth entruſted to our Care in Principles of Loyalty to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and in an inviolable Attachment to that happy and excellent Conſtitution of Government, under which we have long enjoyed the moſt important Bleſſings.

Done in Senate Houſe this 9th Day of November, 1795, and ſubſcribed, in our Name and by our Appointment, by

Arch. Davidſon, Vice-Chancellor.
Pat. Cumin, Clerk of Senate.

[Tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Montroſe, Chancellor.]

St. James's, November 17.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council aſſembled, are anxious to be amongſt the Foremoſt to expreſs our Abhorrence of the daring Inſults which have lately been offered to your Majeſty and to the Laws.

We lament that, whilſt all Orders of your People are in general fully ſenſible of and grateful for the Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, it ſhould be in the Power of wicked and deſperate Men to raiſe Tumults, which endanger the Safety of your Royal Perſon, ſo intimately connected with the Welfare and Happineſs of your Subjects.

Impreſſed with this Sentiment, we earneſtly hope that the Wiſdom of Parliament will provide the Means of preventing for the future thoſe ſeditious Meetings, which evidently lead to Acts of Tumult and Violence, and tend to leſſen that Reverence and Affection which Engliſhmen feel for a free Conſtitution.

In the mean while we anxiouſly hope, that (under the Divine Providence) the unſhaken Firmneſs of your Majeſty, and the watchful Zeal of your faithful Subjects, will prevent a Repetition of the late atrocious Proceedings.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall, the 9th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of St. Andrew's, met at St. Andrew's this 6th Day

Day of November, embrace the early Opportunity which our Meeting affords us of approaching the Throne with our warmeſt Congratulations upon your Majeſty's Eſcape from a late imminent Danger.

Convinced that Subordination is eſſential to Liberty, we lament that a Spirit ſubverſive of the Britiſh Conſtituion has appeared at this intereſting Criſis in a daring Outrage againſt the eſtabliſhed Government. We are filled with Aſtoniſhment that any Perſons, who enjoy the many Bleſſings which your Majeſty's benign Reign extends to all Orders of Subjects, ſhould be capable of forming the atrocious Deſign by a direct Act of Treaſon againſt the ſacred Perſon of their gracious Sovereign. And we bleſs the all-ruling Providence of God which interpoſed to defeat their deſperate Wickedneſs, and in the Preſervation of a Life dear to all good Men has given us a Pledge of the Continuance of our Proſperity.

That it may pleaſe Almighty God to keep your Majeſty at all Times under his holy Protection; that your Majeſty's unceaſing Cares for their Welfare may ever be gratefully acknowledged by a free and happy People; and that Princes of the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover may to lateſt Ages ſway with Felicity and Renown the Britiſh Sceptre, are the warmeſt Prayers of may, it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of St. Andrew's.

David Williamſon, Moderator.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunfermline, beg Leave humbly to expreſs thoſe Sentiments of Affection which we feel for your Majeſty's Perſon, and our Attachment to the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, which it is our earneſt Prayer your Majeſty may long continue to wear in the full Enjoyment of Health and Proſperity, to your own Glory and the Happineſs of your People.

It was therefore with equal Regret and Indignation that we beheld the late wicked and atrocious Attack made on your Royal Perſon; a Deed which, in our Opinion, demands the moſt pointed Marks of Abhorrence from every Friend to the Government and Conſtitution of this Country. A Crime of ſuch Magnitude will not, 'tis to be hoped, paſs without it's Reward. The Orders your Majeſty has been pleaſed to iſſue for diſcovering the Guilty will, we are perſuaded, be attended with the deſired Succeſs, and the wretched Perpetrators receive that Puniſhment from the offended Laws of their Country which their Crime ſo juſtly merits.

We feel much Pleaſure in receiving your Majeſty's moſt gracious Aſſurance of your Deare to procure for your People the Bleſſings of a ſafe and honorable Peace. May your Majeſty's Endeavours be crowned with Succeſs, and may the Spirit of the Nation be roused in ſeconding your Majeſty's Meaſures for the Attainment of ſo deſirable an Object.

Your Majeſty's Recommendation to Parliament to take into their ſerious Conſideration the preſent alarming Price of Proviſions affords us great Satiſfaction. We hope the Wiſdom of Parliament will be employed in fully inveſtgating the Source of this ſerious Evil, and in pointing out the proper Remedy, from an accurate and comprehenſive View of a Subject, which in its Nature and Conſequences muſt have the moſt intereſting Effects on the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Majeſty's Dominions.

Signed in Name and in Preſence of the Town Council by James Moodie, Provoſt.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Common Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Rutherglen, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty, and to offer our thankful Congratulation on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the baſe and daring Outrages lately committed againſt your Majeſty at the Meeting of Parliament.

We aſſure your Majeſty that we bear the moſt unſhaken and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and to our excellent Conſtitution, from which we and all your Majeſty's Subjects enjoy the ineſtimable Bleſſings of compleat Protection and Security in our Perſons, and in our Rights and Liberties, Civil and Religious, under your Majeſty's wiſe and juſt Government; that we view with Deteſtation and Abhorrence every Attempt to injure your Majeſty's Perſon or to diſturb your Government, and ſincerely hope that the Offenders will be diſcovered and brought to that Puniſhment which their depraved and wicked Conduct merits; declaring it to be our firm Determination to abide by your Majeſty's Perſon and Government upon all Occaſions, and to ſupport and protect the ſame to the utmoſt of our Power.

Signed by our Appointment, in our Name and Preſence, by Robert Park, Eſq; Provoſt of the ſaid Burgh, this 7th Day of November, 1795 Years. Robert Park.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Bridgnorth, humbly beg Leave to preſent our ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the daring and black Attempts lately made upon your ſacred Perſon.

Deeply ſenſible of the many Bleſſings which this Nation enjoys under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, we heard with Horror and Aſtoniſhment that there were to be found in this favoured Country Wretches ſo vile and impious as to entertain evil Deſigns againſt the beſt of Princes. We earneſtly hope, in common with all good Citizens, that the Meaſures your Majeſty has ſeen fit to adopt for the Diſcovery of the Offenders will produce the deſired Effect, that ſuch abandoned Miſcreants may be rooted out from amongſt us.

At the ſame Time that we are truly thankful to the Almighty for his great Goodneſs in having hitherto preſerved the valuable Life of our beloved Sovereign, we fervently pray, that He would mercifully continue to protect your Majeſty from all ſecret Conſpiracies and open Violence.

May your Majeſty live long, very long, to reign over a grateful and affectionate People.

[Preſented by Iſaac Hawkins Browne and John Whitmore, Eſqrs; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Barnſtaple, in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Barnſtaple, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude for your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the Violence and Fury of wicked and miſguided Men.

We ſincerely deplore the horrid Infatuation with which they appear to have been actuated, and we utterly deteſt and abhor, and will at all Times to the utmoſt of our Power reſiſt, ſuch atrocious Principles as tend to ſubvert all Subordination and Government.

We do in the moſt ſolemn Manner aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Zeal and Attachment to your Perſon and Government, which we will defend, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all your Enemies, whether foreign or domeſtic. That the Crown of theſe Realms may long flouriſh on your Royal Head, and that the Bleſſings of a mild and auſpicious Government may be perpetuated to a grateful and loyal People, is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Guildhall, Barnſtaple, Nov. 4, 1795.

[Preſented by John Cleveland and William Devaynes, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, the Corporation and Inhabitants of the Town of Shrewſbury, being moved with Horror and Indignation at the atrocious Attempts lately made by the Emiſſaries of a deteſtable and traiterous Faction to violate the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty, beg Leave to offer our ſincere and cordial Congratulations to your Majeſty on your recent Deliverance from their treaſonable Aſſaults; and to expreſs our unfeigned Gratitude to the Divine Providence, which hath preſerved to us a Prince to whom his Subjects are equally attached by Duty, by Affection, and by Intereſt; and our earneſt Wiſhes that Heaven may be pleaſed to continue for many Years to your faithful People the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's mild and beneficent Government. And we ſolemnly aſſure your Majeſty that we will, as much as in us lies, keep a watchful Eye upon the Proceedings of all Perſons within the Sphere of our Obſervation, whom we may have Reaſon to ſuſpect of Deſigns hoſtile to your Majeſty's Perſon or Government, and hold ourſelves ready, if neceſſary, to repreſs, Force by Force, and to reſiſt, at the Riſque of our Lives and Fortunes, all Attempts that may be made by wicked and malevolent Men againſt your Majeſty's Crown and Dignity, or againſt the Peace of your loyal and faithful Subjects.

Wm. Cludde, Mayor.

[Preſented by the Mayor, accompanied by Sir William Pulteney, Bart. and John Hill, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of Newcaſtle upon Tyne.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the late traiterous Outrage againſt your Royal Perſon. We behold, with Aſtoniſhment and Horror, the execrable Wickedneſs of Men, who, deſpiſing alike the Duties of Humanity, Allegiance, and Religion, have dared to lift their Hand againſt a Sovereign ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed for every publick and private Virtue; and we thankfully acknowledge the Goodneſs of that gracious Providence which has hitherto preſerved your Majeſty's invaluable Life, and delivered us from the malicious Deſigns of the Enemies of our happy Conſtitution.

Permit us, Sire, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are deeply impreſſed with the moſt grateful Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's paternal Protection, which we earneſtly pray may be continued to us through many Years of Happineſs to your Majeſty, and of Proſperity to the Britiſh Nation.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, this 6th Day of November, 1795.

Rich. Chambers, Mayor.

[Preſented by Charles Brandling, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Councilmen of the Town of Liverpool, (in ſpecial Council aſſembled) ever anxious for the Safety of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and the Preſervation of our glorious Conſtitution, feel ourſelves called upon to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the wicked and traiterous Attack upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, upon the Day you were graciouſly pleaſed ſo affectionately to expreſs your Solicitude for the Happineſs of your People, and the Proſperity of your Kingdoms.

We lament there ſhould exiſt Characters ſo abandoned as to harbour even the ſlighteſt Wiſh or Inclination to violate the Perſon of a Sovereign, under whoſe mild and beneficent Reign his Subjects have enjoyed the Advantages of a Conſtitution the Boaſt of every enlightened Mind, and the Envy of ſurrounding Nations.

We moſt ſincerely hope that the vile Authors and Perpetrators of this wicked Outrage will be conſigned to the Puniſhment they ſo juſtly merit; and we early beſeech the wiſe Diſpoſer of all Events to protect your Majeſty from any ſimilar Attempts in future, and to grant you, Sire, many happy Years to be the Bleſſing of your Country, and the Father of your People.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of this Town of Liverpool to be hereunto affixed, the 7th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Preſented by Peter Baker, Eſq; Mayor, attended by the Recorder.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity Houſe of Deptford Strond.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the ancient Body Corporate of the Seamen of England, beg Leave ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty on the merciful Interpoſition of Divine Providence in preſerving your Majeſty's Royal Perſon from a wicked and atrocious Aſſault, lately made by a daring Party of evil-minded and deſigning Men.

Truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we, with the reſt of our Fellow Subjects, enjoy under the Protection of your Majeſty's Government, and warmly attached as we are to your Royal Perſon and Virtues, we moſt earneſtly hope that the Meaſures, which your Majeſty has directed to be taken, will effectually ſecure your ſacred Perſon from ſuch Outrages in future; and we moſt heartily join in earneſt Prayers to Almighty God, that your Majeſty may continue to reign with uninterrupted Felicity, in the Hearts of a faithful and affectionate People, to the utmoſt Extent of Years and Glory.

Given under our Common Seal, this 5th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Mr. Pitt.]

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen and Free Burgeſſes of the Town of Cambridge, in Common Hall aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen and Free Burgeſſes of the Town of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late moſt daring and infamous Attempt upon your Royal Perſon. We deeply lament that there are any People, however few, ſo loſt to the Bleſſings this Country enjoys under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government; but this alarming Outrage and the Attempts to ſow the Seeds of Sedition, which have been ſo notoriouſly practiſed, too plainly evince that there are ſuch. We rely upon your Majeſty's parental Care for the Safety and Happineſs of your loyal Subjects that ſuch Meaſures will be taken as may be deemed moſt adviſeable to prevent a Repetition of this atrocious Attempt, and effectually to guard againſt the Evils we now ſo ſtrongly deprecate. We beg Leave to repeat our Aſſurances, that we ſhall always feel moſt ſtrongly intereſted in whatever concerns the Safety, Honour and Dignity of your Majeſty, convinced that our own Happineſs and that of our Poſterity is implicated in them. We alſo, Sire, moſt ſolemnly declare it ſhall be our conſtant Prayer, that you may long reign over us, happy in continual Proofs of the Loyalty and Regard of your People, and that the World may ſee your Majeſty has the Felicity of governing a People, juſtly ſenſible of the great Bleſſings they enjoy under their happy Conſtitution, and, above all others, affectionately attached to the Perſon of their Sovereign.

Given under our Common Seal, this 10th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.
